

Because your hearing health is part of your overall health

Get the support you need to hear your best

Take charge of your hearing health today

Treating hearing loss may help you rediscover parts of your life that may have felt missing — including engaging in daily activities and staying connected to the people you love. You'll also support your long-term health and can potentially reduce the risk of diseases such as dementia.¹

UnitedHealthcare Hearing is here to help. Through UnitedHealthcare Hearing, you'll save up to 50% off a wide selection of hearing aids and services.

Contact UnitedHealthcare Hearing to schedule an initial hearing exam and consultation

Treat hearing loss and protect your hearing health. Call 866-926-6632, TTY 711 to schedule an appointment.

2

Your provider will help you find the perfect solution

At your consultation and exam, your provider will assess your hearing and provide a personalized recommendation. Plus, they'll be able to answer any questions you have.

Better hearing starts here

Getting a professional hearing test is an important first step in taking care of your hearing. If you already have hearing aids, have them evaluated to make sure they're the right devices for you. Both of these services are covered at no cost by your UnitedHealthcare plan, and can help you protect your hearing as well as your overall health.
